Group Interaction & Application

Before diving into this week's sermon and questions, take a moment to share what Easter has meant to you in your faith walk – both in the past and in the present.

Read aloud Acts 2:22-24.

What words, phrases, concepts, or images from these verses stand out to you as you just read them, or create curiosity for you in some way?

What aspects of Pastor Alan's message gave you fresh insight into this passage, or helped you the most in understanding these verses and what we experience here?

Within your life journey, how have you handled the loss of those around you?

How do you process the reality of death?

Pastor Alan states that, "God hates death!"

What reaction do you have to this statement?

Read together again Acts 2:24 as well as 1 Corinthians 15:54-55 and Revelations 1:17-18.

What encouragement, if any, do these verses provide?

How fully are you living in the realities these verses proclaim?

If you are struggling with the reality of death of someone close to you today, share a bit about this struggle.

If you are living in fear of your own death, how might you move forward in less fear and greater freedom?

Conclude by praying for one another in taking practical next steps in applying this weekend's message and group discussion, after which pray for group needs and concerns.
